

JOSEPH S. WALKER, M.D., F.A.C.S.

TRAINING:

Categorical General Surgery Resident, Baptist Health Systems, Birmingham, AL, November 2008-2011

Categorical General Surgery Resident, Physicians' Medical Center Carraway, Birmingham, AL, July 2006-November 2008

EDUCATION:

M.D., University of Alabama School of Medicine, Birmingham & Tuscaloosa, AL
August 2002- June 2006

B.S., The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa, AL

Major: Biology, Minor: Psychology, August 1998- May 2002

Magna Cum Laude

UA Presidential Scholarship (4yrs)

Graduate of Brilliant High School, Brilliant, AL

LICENSURE:

Fellow of the American College of Surgeons

American Board of Surgery Qualifying Exam, passed

American Board of Surgery Certifying Exam, passed

AL medical license obtained

ACS/SAGES Fundamentals of Laparoscopic Surgery certified

National Healing Wound Care and Hyperbarics Course, Ohio State University

PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES/MEMBERSHIPS:

Eliza Coffee Memorial Hospital (ECM) Chief of Surgery, 2015-present

ECM Medical Executive Committee Secretary, 2013-2015

Southeastern Surgical Society

Medical Association of the State of Alabama

American College of Surgeons

Carraway Surgical Society

PUBLICATIONS:

Venobronchial fistula, a rare central venous line complication- Baptist Health Systems Research Day, accepted to Southeastern Surgical Society poster session 2009

Incidence of contrast induced acute renal failure after endovascular abdominal aortic aneurysm repair, a single institute five year study- Baptist Health Systems Research Day 2010

Zollinger-Ellison Syndrome and MEN-1: A case report and review of current gastrinoma management strategies- Baptist Health Systems Research Day 2011

INTERESTS:

Being with my wife, family, and friends; Sports, running, reading, playing guitar, watching Alabama football.